WE GATHER

Prelude

Welcome

Rev. Pat Hubman

Welcome to this celebration of World Communion Sunday and to our building. First some housekeeping details: In case you haven't been here before, please notice the emergency exit to YOUR right and those behind you. In case of an emergency, please take your family and exit as quickly as possible. Let the New Beginnings and UBC leaders deal with the emergency. Restrooms you will find out these doors, turning right down the hall, they will be on the left. You will also find restrooms on the right wall of the gym as you enter from this direction.

Let us prepare our hearts as we celebrate our ability to gather as one body with many different members for the first time since 2020 when the pandemic changed our lives. Many of us are coping as best we can with loneliness, depression and other mental health concerns that were accentuated during the past two years. Some of us are dealing with the effects of long term covid that seem to linger. And during that time, many of us have lost loved ones. Today as we begin our worship we want to remember and give thanks to God for those who have gone before us, these last two years, to their eternal rest. As we sing "Precious Lord, Take My Hand" the names of those we have lost will be shown on the screen to receive the gift of your prayers.

WE HEAR THE WORDConfession and Forgiveness

Rev. Roger Behrens: In the name of God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

ALL: Amen

Lauri Schwenke, Bethany Lutheran Church:

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, though Jesus Christ our Lord.

ALL: Amen

Lauri Schwenke: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Most merciful God,

ALL: we confess that we are in bondage to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

Rev. Jenny Scott-Jones: In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. Those who believe in Jesus Christ receive power to become the children of God and receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, we celebrate the forgiveness of all our sins through Christ, Our Lord.

ALL: Amen

First Reading

Cindy Kalweit, North Presbyterian Church: The first reading is Isaiah chapter 55, verses 10 and 11.

For just as from the heavens
the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth,
making it fertile and fruitful,
giving seed to the sower and bread for food,
so will my word be
that goes forth from my mouth:
it will not return to me empty,
but will carry out my will,
achieving the end for which I sent it.

(The Inclusive Bible, The First Egalitarian Translation © 2007 by Priests for Equality, pg. 257)

This is the word of the Lord.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 34:2-9

Jeremy Lundberg, Ray Of Hope Church: The Psalm today is Psalm 34, verses 2-9. Our response is, "Taste and see the goodness of the Lord."

ALL: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless God at all times;
 God's praise shall be ever in my mouth.
 Let my soul glory in Our God;
 the lowly will hear me and be glad.

ALL: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Glorify God with me,
 and together praise the Holy Name of God.
 I sought God's help, and my prayer was answered.
 God delivered me from all my fears.

ALL: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Look to God that you may be radiant with joy.
 And your faces may not blush with shame.
 When the afflicted person called out, God listened,
 And saved them from all their fears and afflictions.

ALL: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

The Angel of the LORD encamps around those who reverence God, and delivers them.
 Taste and see how good the LORD is;
 blessed are those who take refuge in God.

ALL: Taste and see the goodness of the LordSecond Reading

Michele Stanford, Grace Episcopal Church: Our second reading is Ephesians 4:1-8.

Unity in the Body of Christ

As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

But to each one of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it. This is why it says:

"When he ascended on high,
 he took many captives
 and gave gifts to his people."

This is the Word of the Lord.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

A MOMENT OF SILENCE for contemplation on the Scripture Readings we have heard today.

Gospel Reading

Rev. Gary Brinn: Please stand if you are able. A reading of the Holy Gospel of John Chapter 6, verses 27-35.

Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on him God the Father has placed his seal of approval.”

Then they asked him, “What must we do to do the works God requires?”

Jesus answered, “The work of God is this: to believe in the one he has sent.”

So they asked him, “What sign then will you give that we may see it and believe you? What will you do? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written: ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’”

Jesus said to them, “Very truly I tell you, it is not Moses who has given you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is the bread that comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”

“Sir,” they said, “always give us this bread.”

Then Jesus declared, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ

Please be seated.

Rev. Brinn will introduce our Guest Preacher.

WE RESPOND TO THE WORD

Prayers of the People

Sarah Skebey, United Baptist Church:

Friends in Christ, God invites us to hold the needs of our sisters and brothers as dear to us as our own needs.

Loving our neighbors as ourselves, we offer our thanksgiving and our petitions on behalf of the church and the world.

ALL: Lord, hear our prayer.

Daniel Schwenke/Lauri Schwenke, Bethany Lutheran Church:

Gracious God, grant peace among nations. Cleanse from our own hearts the seeds of strife: greed and envy, harsh misunderstandings and ill will, fear and desire for revenge. Make us quick to welcome ventures in cooperation among the peoples of the world, so that there may be woven the fabric of a common good too strong to be torn by the evil hands of war. In this time of community gathering, make us be diligent; and in the time of peril, let not our courage fail.

ALL: Lord, hear our prayer.

Deb Todd, Grace Episcopal Church:

Honored Creator, Humankind is blessed beyond measure with gifts from your hand, that sustain us. The earth is a source of nourishment. The intellectual and technical abilities developed in humans, which enable manifold replenishment of nourishment... these were endowed by you. Today, the grateful servants gathered here fervently ask that obstacles cast by men that impede distribution or provision of food and other nourishment to all your creation, ...may these be struck down.

ALL: Lord, hear our prayer.

Sue Grenoble, New Beginnings United Methodist Church:

Lord, we pray for those who are dealing with the darkness of addictions. We ask that you shine your healing light on those who need your strength to simply live one day at a time. We ask that you reveal yourself to those who are dealing with mental health concerns that they might know your powerful presence when they need it most. It is in knowing the power of your name we say:

ALL: Lord, hear our prayer.

Kurt Kalweit, North Presbyterian Church:

We lift up all those who are suffering in mind, body, and spirit; as well as their caretakers, their families, friends, doctors, nurses, all who provide or assist in providing them the care they need. Merciful God, you do not turn your back on our plight, but are with us in our suffering and in our struggle. Pour out your Spirit upon your creation so that we might know healing, comfort, and hope in our world and in our lives.

ALL: Lord, hear our prayer.

Andrea Nichols, The Park Church:

Jesus encountered a man, unsheltered, mentally ill, living among the tombs. Jesus called the man to wholeness, and restored him to his community. For those who are unsheltered, those who are couch-surfing, those who are anxious about soaring rents...

ALL: Lord, hear our prayer.

Kaiden Rae Benedict, Ray Of Hope Church: We pray that all churches will readily welcome everyone, just as Christ has welcomed us. We pray to the Lord.

ALL: Lord, hear our prayer.

Sarah Skebey: We now pause for a moment of silence to add our own petitions within the quietness of our hearts – Moment of silence – We pray to the Lord,

ALL: Lord, hear our prayer.

Sarah Skebey: Thank you oh God for hearing our prayers!! We are grateful to be gathered together to partake in Holy Communion!! May your blessings be upon each of us!! We Love and honor you oh God.

ALL: Amen

Offering

Sue Grenoble: This morning's offering will go to Habitat for Humanity. All cash offerings will go automatically go to Habitat. In the upside-down world of the gospel, we measure our wealth not by what we have, but what we can give away. Let us give away generously, in this offering, to bless your church, your people, your creation.¹ The morning offering will now be received, in person, electronically or through the mail.

ALL: Amen

Rev. Evan Hansen: Instruction for use of the communion kits received on the way into the sanctuary.

Rev. Hansen: The Lord be with you!

Rev. Hansen: Lift up your hearts!

ALL: We lift them to the Lord!

Rev. Hansen: Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God!

ALL: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Rev. Scott-Jones: It is indeed right and salutary that we should at all times and in all places offer thanks and praise to you, O Lord almighty and every living God.

Rev. Brinn: This table is prepared for each of us, and for all of us together. We come to this Table, not because we must, we come because we may. It is the Love of GOD that prepares us for this table and this table for us.

Rev. Behrens: Receiving from this table, we are invited to experience Jesus Christ as the Lord of Life. For His life, His death, and His Life Rising Up have made all things new. Thanks be to God for such grace-filled hospitality as His.

ALL: Thanks be to God for such grace-filled hospitality as This.

Rev. Hansen: Let us be in a spirit of prayer: Dear God, we give you thanks for the invitation to join You and Yours at this table of Communion. Here, we are received for Life in Your Household by Your Enduring Love - Love that is Self-Giving. May the gifts we now share with each other nourish all, strengthen all, and liberate all, cascading divine generosity throughout Your Caring Kingdom.

ALL: Amen.

Rev. Scott-Jones: Therefore, overcome with joy on this World Communion Sunday, we join with our brothers and sisters around the world, and even the heavenly Powers, with the angelic hosts, singing together the unending hymn of your glory:

Rev. Dr. Williams: Blessed are you, Lord of heaven and earth. In mercy for our fallen world, you gave your only Son, that all those who believe in him should not perish but have eternal life. We give thanks to you for the salvation you have prepared for us through Jesus Christ. Send now your Holy Spirit into our hearts, that we may receive our Lord with a living faith as he comes to us in His holy supper.

ALL: Amen. Come Lord Jesus.

Rev. Hubman: We remember Jesus lifting the bread during the supper, giving thanks, celebrating it as purest blessing, saying: Take and eat, this is my body, offered up for you. Eat this bread as often as you will, in remembrance of Me.

Rev. Horton: We remember Jesus lifting the cup after the supper, giving thanks, celebrating it as purest blessings, saying: Take and drink, this is the blood of my life, it is the cup of a new covenant: "Love One Another." Drink this cup as often as you will in remembrance of Me.

Rev. Benedict: Having heard the Word of God and having remembered the sacrifice of the cross, we invite everyone to pray together the prayer of Jesus.

ALL: Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread;
 and forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those
 who trespass against us;
 and lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For this is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 forever and ever. Amen

PRIVATE PRAYER FOR A SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Dr. Jan Eberhard, The Park Church: Some people are watching from a location where they do not have actual Holy Communion Bread and Wine with them. We offer the following prayer for them based upon a prayer from the Episcopal National Cathedral Prayer book for a Spiritual reception of Holy Communion. This prayer assures all the benefits and blessings of a physical reception.

Oh, My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and I welcome you in my soul. Since I cannot now receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and the life to come. Amen.

Invitation to the Table

Rev. Hubman: Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. The bread which we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ?

ALL: It is!

Rev. Horton: The cup over which we give thanks, is it not a sharing in the blood of Christ?

ALL: It is!

Rev. Behrens: Come from the East and the West, from the North and the South and share in the bread and the wine made holy. The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Rev. Benedict: Instructions to Receive Holy Communion

- 1) For everyone, in church and watching virtually: Please use the top pullback seal for the Communion bread. Together everyone online and in the church receive the Holy Communion Bread of Life.
- 2) Again, please pullback the second seal for the Communion wine or grape juice. Now we receive the Holy Communion Cup of Salvation together.

Those in church: after receiving Communion, place the empty container in the metal cup holder under the chair in front of you.
