

Palm Sunday – not "palm/passion" Sunday; why not?

We are Celebrating the Triumphal Entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. Why didn't the Temple staff and established professional clergy welcome Jesus?

The clergy of his day seemed really upset with Jesus. Why did they reject him as a fraud, a blasphemer, and an insurrectionist?

Who were the people who did welcome Jesus, and how did they know it was time for the Messiah to be revealed?

Why did Jesus enter the city so humbly?

Finally, we might ask, "what was He thinking" since He didn't seem to act like a King about to take over the World. Did Jesus enter the Temple that day?

Why didn't He sit on His Throne in the Holy of Holies?

Holy Thursday - a celebration, may not have been the actual day of the week. However, it could have been on Thursday night.

If it was on Thursday, how might that reconcile to "on the third day Jesus was raised from the Dead?"

Passover in 2023 starts on Wednesday of Holy Week, is this related?

Was a sacrificial theme present when He gave the Eucharist, His Bread of Life, and His Cup of Salvation?

What should we do with a sacrificial theme if there was one?

Aren't the claims of eating His body and drinking His blood grotesque?

How can we be expected to explain this to modern people?

What difference does it make if this is just a symbol or if Christ is really and truly present in the "Bread of Life" and the "Cup of Salvation?"

So are you saying God has only saved the "Christians" who have "gone to church" because they are the only ones to have received Holy Communion? If not, then why all this fuss?

"Can't we just move beyond this and get our spirituality from the Internet?"

Good Friday – "Good for what or for who?" It looked like a complete failure and loss.

Why keep the body on the Cross in artwork now that Jesus is risen?

Isn't it time to move past the Cross and just be spiritual people?

"Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world." What is "the sin of the world?"

It sure doesn't look like the World has stopped sinning. Why is the world so sinful if the Cross of Jesus was so powerful and significant?

What kind of God would allow all this chaos, war, poverty, classism, and terrible governments? What is going on here?

Holy Saturday – I thought we were celebrating Easter Sunday, you might ask. What are we doing having Church at night?

How does starting at 7:45 p.m. have anything to do with a sunrise service?

Perhaps you might be thinking; we should go up on a hill early Sunday morning and have a sunrise service.

Did you say Fire? Water? Wind? Earth? Darkness? Light? This Holy Saturday thing is starting to sound like a New Age thing to me....
HOW IS This an Easter Service???

No Church on Easter Sunday Morning??? What is going on around here?
This so-called "holy week" doesn't seem like anything I have ever experienced before.....
